!"#$$%&$'&( )*+ , -&. /")%01&(+$23/4#1&

Full Name:!! David E Henry

Suffix:!

Title Assistant Professor

Office Location:!!!! McKee Business & Technology Building, Room 215

Phone: 256-726-7078

Email: dhenry@oakwood.edu

Expertise / Activities:

27 years teaching accounting and accounting related software.
Significant real property investing and management experience
Tutoring and one-on-one academic help.
Simplifying complex accounting problems into smaller step-by-step parts for easier comprehension.
Preparing and managing online accounting course work.

Educational Background (school, degrees):

MASTER OF SCIENCE (2007)
University of Maryland University College, Maryland (now UMGC)
Major in Accounting and Information Technology

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (1986)
Oakwood College, Huntsville, Alabama
Major in Accounting

Research Interests:!!

Accounting Fraud: The intentional manipulation of online accounting data to mislead and illegally benefit perpetrators.

Making accounting more relatable to non-traditional college students.

Biosketch:

Originally from the twin-island country of Trinidad and Tobago in the Caribbean.
A product of SDA education. Went to Harmon SDA high school in Tobago.
Always loved teaching and started college as an Education major at Caribbean Union College (now the University of the Southern Caribbean).
Love of numbers and financials nudged me to accounting and completed my BS in Accounting Degree at Oakwood University in 1986.
My first job out of college was teaching accounting and accounting application software to adults wanting to be prepared for the accounting information job market.
Did significant tax preparation work for individuals and small businesses.
Adjunct accounting instructor at Oakwood since 2007.
Full time Assistant Professor of accounting at my beloved Oakwood University from 2021.